Rating: 4 stars

For better or for worse, Al Di Meola is Maciste of the six strings. A left hand of steel, powerful, fast, clean, precise, agile as a leopard in the ropes. The years in which embellished the Return to Forever are really far away, but his research between mergers world continues with the same obstinacy of those who want to push the listener beyond the boundaries of genres and of déjà vu.

Between Brazil, Spain, Africa and leads Jazz Rock, did he not call his latest creation, the musicians who donate to the "stron throughout their native experience.

Morocco Fantasia is the synthesis of... Filmed and recorded in Rabat, Morocco, this DVD shows the musician at the... to imagine other paths, bringing to... and sounds lost in the sands of time... culture of a place so beautiful through... skill.

The colorings of timbre Fausto Beccalossi, accordion, the interplay of all the band are a delight for those who think that World Music is not just a form of Western colonialism. But above all an opportunity to rethink (without violence, and cultural superstructure, but with a creative spirit) places the tradition in the light of modernity and artistic curiosity.

Among arabesques flavor slightly psychedelic, beautiful images stolen from streets of Rabat, a light unmistakable mystical serenity, Maciste tickles the fancy of the six strings, gives a fresh, he throws a bucket of ice water on him that lasts 71 minute concert and the rest (for a total of 123 minutes) between tests, soundcheck and life on the road.

It is a performance of staggering virtuosity, imaginative flavors and sensations of varied and colorful. A carousel dancing through six strings that multiply endlessly.

Ma soprattutto un'occasione di ripensare (senza violenze e sovrastrutture culturali, ma con spirito creativo) i luoghi della tradizione alla luce della modernità e della curiosità artistica.
