"STRUTTIN' OUR STUFF" (MVD AUDIO)

Fans of the lasting folk rock crafted by America in the 1970s will appreciate the band's "America - Struttin' Our Stuff" (MVD AUDIO) collection recorded during the group's European tour in 1999. Live versions of classics such as the Neil Young-flavored "A Horse With No Name," the breezy "Ventura Highway" and introspective "Tin Man" conjure up all kinds of musical magic.

Also recommended: Neil Young's "Harvest," "The Best of James Taylor" and Nils Lofgren's "Sacred Weapon."
