CD Review: Diabolic Inventions And Seduction For Solo Guitar by Al Di Meola

October 22nd, 2007 by zzsimonb

Mike Kuykendall

It was with trepidation that I popped this one in the player. The title conjured up ideas of more heavy metal, and I am still recovering from my last bout. I suspect that heavy metal was a contributing factor in my stroke!

This is an absolutely delightful album consisting of Al and a great sounding acoustic guitar. Although he is normally very Jazz influenced, I found that this album leaned much more to classical and occasionally flamenco styles.

If you are looking for some easy going and superbly relaxing guitar, with just a hint of some backing percussion, this is one that you should seek out. It is available from MVD.
