In 1980 Jon Anderson was out of Yes, having been replaced by a Buggle (Trevor Horn). He had just put out a solo album Song of Seven and also his first collaboration with Vangelis Short Stories in my opinion their best record together. Naturally it was time to go on tour...

On Live in Sheffield 1980 we get a very good show, well recorded, of what Jon Anderson was doing at that time. A number of his solo tracks, some from the Jon and Vangelis Short Stories album and a long Yes medley featuring mostly their song based material ("Nous sommes du soleil" section, "Wonderous Stories"...). As a bonus, on the second CD, we get about 40 minutes of tour rehearsals.

If you are a Yes or Jon Anderson enthusiast, this is a must. Most of the pieces you will have heard before (studio or live), but the inclusion of a Sax-Flute player really changes the sound. Much better than what I expected.
