... Rene Amesz Interview
 As the speaker strains to handle the load of the low end, a signature sound & style has caused a frenzy on the dancefloor. The pulse of the crowd erupts into pure bedlam and an inquisitive clubber turns to ask his friend, "who does this song?". "Rene Amesz", his friend replies, "sick track" he concludes. Although never having set foot in Toronto, his music has reached out with an iron fist to seduce & enslave the Toronto scene seemingly without effort...

Fontana to Distribute Swank Recordings
 Fontana, the independent distribution arm of Universal Music Group, the world's leading music company, has signed an exclusive distribution deal with Las Vegas-based Swank Recordings, it was announced today by Steve Pritchitt, Executive Vice President and General Manager of Fontana, and Ben Clark, President and founder of Swank Recordings. As part of the agreement, Fontana will distribute Swank Recordings product in the US. The label releases forward thinking dance and electronic music, ranging from DJ-driven mix compilations to deluxe, lifestyle oriented collections. Swank Recordings also has a stable of both established and upcoming artists including King Britt, Andy Caldwell, Groove Junkies, Alix Alvarez, Halo, Mister O, Kiko Navarro, DJ Dealer and Justin Michael, whose debut single is currently Top 30 on the Billboard Club Play chart. Swank Recordings also runs a sister label called Franchise Player which focuses on more underground-leaning club music sounds. The Franchise Player schedule for 2007 includes releases from JT Donaldson, Joey Youngman, Jake Childs, Jay Tripwire and Demarkus Lewis, all of whom enjoy a strong and loyal following. "Swank Recordings has quickly emerged as one of the world's preeminent architects of today's dance music scene," stated Pritchitt. "We are thrilled and honored that they will now be part of the Fontana family of labels."

Forthcoming on Freak n'Chic
 Freak n' Chic's first release of 2007 comes from Shonky with the "Olympia" EP. Shonky's three track EP which is a deep, heads down groover; a slow, beat-pushing builder with subtle trippy bleeps.. is already supported by Laurent Garnier, Tiefschwarz, Troy Pierce, Ivan Smaghe, Serge Santiago, Pete Tong, Rob Da Bank, Stephan Hinz, Martin Eyerer and Kiki, amongst many more. The next single will be David K with "Boul de Nerf" in February. And, Freak n'Chic will be releasing its first ever compilation in March 2007. "Rendez-Vous" will feature 12 exclusive tracks from Freak n'Chic artists - including U&I (Ghenacia and David K), :Terry:, Shonky, Jamie Jones, Sebastien Bouchet and more, with a special bonus mix CD from Shonky and Dyed Soundorom. More info coming soon.

Radio Show and Josh Wink says he "really digs" the songs "Data Entry" and "Red Shift." Playloop recording artist Tattoo Detectives have also been grabbing the attention of Carl Cox on a regular basis. Their track "Il Salto Fouri" was featured at number 3 on his top ten chart for November 2006 and "ETC." was featured on Cox's "Carl Cox At Space Ibiza" compilation. Germany's Microstar is seeing some prime action too, as his "Virtual Voltage EP" has been all over Beatport's deep house download chart. Justin Paul & DJ Everyday rounds it out with "Dark Matter" and "Cold Night" (#1 and #6 on DanceTracksDigital.com for the first week of December). In 2007, Playloop will release a steady flow of digital 12-inches and LPs from their talented artist roster. First quarter releases include Tattoo Detectives "The Jump Off Remixes" EP (digital only), Tattoo Detectives full length album (digital album with bonus continuous DJ mix), Microstar full length album (CD & digital) and Get Into The Loop Vol. 1 (CD & digital released in April). Get Into The Loop Vol. 1 is the first in a series of quarterly Playloop Records label compilations to feature the hottest Playloop tracks in original, unmixed format. The inaugural release will feature all the Playloop tracks currently making waves around the world.

Forthcoming on Stealth

A new Jesse Garcia track, "Off Da Hook!" is in the works. This track is due out in late February and will be remixed by Funkerman, formerly introduced by his smash hit released by Stealth Records, "Fallin' In Love". Next up is WVP pres. Fresh n' Juicy - Blow That Door. Fresh & Juicy are Francesco Antonaci aka DJ Deep Fresh and producer Joe Calabrò aka DJ Juicy, two Italian guys living in Zurich, Switzerland. They met each other over 20 years ago recognising quite early on a big common interest: passion for music! "Blow that door" is the 1st song under the new artist brand "Fresh & Juicy". A meeting with Simone Vitullo, owner of Go Deeva Records and some small changes on the arrangement made the song ready for the release. Blow That Door comes with a stunning remix from the highly acclaimed Martijn Ten Velden, who is on a roll with his releases on Toolroom Records!!! To quote Roger Sanchez: "Absolutely massive big room vocal mix, with Martijn Ten Velden who takes it even dirtier and bigger." WVP Pres. Fresh n' Juicy - Blow That Door is set for release on the 12th of February.

Louie Vega Mixes the Vibe

World-renowned DJ & 2006 Grammy Award Winning Remixer Louie Vega comes to King Street with a brand new double CD mixed comp coming out in February. Leaking out a couple of tunes off the first EP off the comp, we have the recently released "Stretch My Arm" by Japanese artist Mayu which has Louie's protégé Mr. V delivering a sick slick dub. Louie's classic Dance Ritual Mix of Stephanie Cooke's "Here With My Best Friend" follows bringing the soul back to soulful. Below you'll be able to listen to one of the most classic tunes in our catalog; "It's the Music" by Bassmental feat. Charles McDougal. These and many other King St / Nite Grooves jams included within this sweet 16th installment of the Mix the Vibe series are sure to make it one of the best ones yet.
