Feel the flower power

Don't you just love it when music reaffirms your house love affair? Ananda Project's 'Fire Flower' brings more joy than a bunch from Interflora. A real under the radar project, producer Chris Brann has always impressed with his Ananda ventures. Sweetpea soul – you can almost smell the flora – greets you throughout 'Fire Flower' and if that doesn't stretch those heartstrings of yours I suggest you check your pulse. Vocalist and band member Heather Johnson particularly impresses, 'Stalk You' is a supreme cut of house, and altogether this one stem of sweet house you'll not wanna chop down. 4/5
