

by Chris Forbes

VIOGRESSION/Expound and Exhort (Kraze America) This came out in 1991 and you can get this through MVD, address below. This is some above average straight forward death metal sort of in the vein of Death and Obituary. The singer has that John Tardy sound and the guitar sound is very much like Obituary. The tunes are wicked fast and I had heard of this band back in the day, but not their music. This is just pound in your brain 100% death metal and the fast parts as well as the slower parts kill and you can also throw a little Pestilence in there as well and that is not a bad thing. Well worth getting in my opinion. Info:

www.mvdb2b.com