content/uploads/2013/09/PornShootMassacre.jpg) Main Plot Points:

- A group of sexy women who think they are reporting to the set of a porn film get the shock of their lives when they discover they've been tricked into appearing in a horror movie — where they will be the real-life victims.

What We Thought:

- With a name like Porn Shoot Massacre, you can't take the film all too seriously, so I tried to watch it strictly on entertainment value and it was almost entertaining.
- I want two things in a film like this: lots of nudity and some good kills with lots of blood.
- I did get both to a degree, but the production value and awful acting really hurt the overall enjoyment of the film.
- It opens strong, hot chick naked in a shower, then gives out the plot to the film, a quick kill and I'm thinking "This is going to be great."
- There's some more nudity, some more killings, but unfortunately the cast is pretty bad. I understand a movie like this won't have Oscar caliber talent, but it honestly hurt the film. I was enjoying it for a while, but then it went limp (pun intended). Add in a "twist" and it tried to be more creative than it should be.
- Porn Shoot Massacre should be a no brainer. I like horror films. I enjoy a naked lady or two. Somehow midway through, it lost momentum and burns out. It's not good enough to recommend. It's not "So bad it's good" enough to recommend either. I think I'm being more than generous with a C-grade too.
