TOULOUSE ENGELHARDT/Perpendicular Worlds: Ah, what a nice throwback to the days when you thought Suni McGrath was a star, John Fahey was a superstar and Takoma was a real label. A guitar player's guitar player, the acoustic master is back in top form taking you on the kind of musical journey that will find him elbowing your current faves from their spot on your play lists. This will simply make acoustic music fans come to life. A winner throughout. – Chris Spector
