Accessibility Information

Cleveland's native son Michael Stanley is a regional phenomenon both as a solo artist and with the Michael Stanley Band whose brand of heartland rock was popular in the 1970s and 1980s. The band called it quits in 1986 and since then, Stanley has performed regularly throughout Northeast Ohio with former members of MSB and with his latest band, the Resonators. His newest album, The Ride, features twelve new original Stanley compositions and covers of tunes written by the brothers Gibb and Frankie Miller.

- While working as a regional manager for a record chain, Stanley released his first solo album, Michael Stanley, in 1973. The album, and its follow-up, Friends & Legends, were produced by Bill Szymczyk and featured contributions from Joe Walsh, Todd Rundgren and David Sanborn.

- The Michael Stanley Band was formed in 1974 with singer-songwriter-lead guitarist Jonah Koslen, former Glass Harp bassist Daniel Pecchio and drummer Tommy Dobeck from the band Circus.

- Stanley was the co-host of "PM Magazine" on WJW Channel 8 from 1987 to 1990 and its follow-up, "Cleveland Tonight," until 1991. He's been the afternoon drive DJ for Cleveland's WNCX since 1990.

FREE PARKING SHUTTLE SERVICE. Park at Cleveland Heights City Hall (40 Severance Circle, Cleveland Heights, 44118). Shuttle runs one hour before showtime (it will not run once the concert begins) and up to one hour after the concert ends. Made possible by Motorcars Honda and Toyota.
