It is dubbed "The Last Videotape You Will Ever Watch." Similar to The Ring, a haunted VHS tape reeks havoc on those that watch it.

What makes this movie a sure cult classic is the fact the it had no budget. What can someone do with no budget when making a film? Well, they can do a lot if they are making a horror film. This movie includes all you need; death, blood, gore and bad acting!

Horror films aren't just some passing trend \(http://www.instant.ly/blog/2012/11/mobile-marketing-at-walmart-keeping-an-eye-on-the-trends/\)- these babies will be around forever and you can bet newcomers will be making films, and bad films, forever! Enjoy this one; maybe it will inspire you to make your own!
