BELIVER/Extraction From Mortality (Metal Mind Productions) This band I know got a ton of shit for being a Christian thrash metal band, but I they were pretty good and after hearing this re-issue I can safely say my opinion was correct. This is some killer old school thrash with some wicked riffs and fast blazing parts. I am not a huge fan of lyrics and to me bands can sing about what they want and this band never tried to shove their opinion down anyone's throat. The tunes are vicious thrash tunes that any fan of old school thrash will flip over. This simply put, kills. Info: www.mvdb2b.com
