

www.metalcorefanzine.com

- chris forbes

ACROPHET/Corrupt Minds (Metal Mind Productions) I saw this band way back I think in 1987 with Sacred Reign up at a club called Escapades and about 12 people were there. They kicked my ass and when I saw this in my mailbox I did a double take. I popped in the disc and was taken back many moons ago. This is killer speed/thrash metal with tons of blasting speed parts and intense thrash riffing. The vocals are of a thrash/hardcore style and this band I feel was very underrated as this release is a gem of a release and you must get your hands on it. Listen to the riffs of fury and the vocals being screamed and yelled with the fury of a charging bull. This is a classic piece of underground 80's thrash that should not be ignored. If you find this, buy at all costs. Info:

www.mvdb2b.com