DISGUST/A World Of No Beauty (Metal Mind Productions) I remember this band back in the day, but had not heard their music. Now this, their 2nd release, is being re-issued with 8 live bonus tracks. The music is a mix of death and a bit of grind metal. They remind me of Napalm Death minus some of the blazing speed parts. The band do speed it up, but it mostly mid paced parts with growl vocals. The production is nice and thick and the guitar sound I liked a lot. The live tracks sound good and the band sound tight and the tunes sound a bit faster live. This was a pleasant surprise. Info:
