- CHRIS FORBES

STEEPLECHASE/Self Titled (Metal Mind Productions) I have never heard of this band before, but I am bowing to this. This is godly AOR rock in the vein of Balance, Frankie and The Knockouts, etc. The singer has such a great melodic voice it isn't even funny. The music is a pure AOR rock fans dream as this is just some of the best music I have ever heard. I love a lot of the early 80's AOR rock and this band just totally blew me away. The production is crisp and clear and every song on this is a perfect 10 and why this band didn't get bigger back in the day is beyond me. An instant classic for sure. Info:
