IAN GILLIAN/Naked Thunder (Metal Mind Productions) The last of the batch of Gillian re-issues and his voice sounds great on this as it is so moving and inspiring. Just great rock n roll on this and songs on this were really moving and you would know what I mean if you heard them. "Loving on Borrowed Time" has some a killer hook and solo it is not funny and he sings the tune with such feeling I was almost on my knees. I had never heard any of his solo stuff, but I loved all these discs except for one and if you're a fan of the man or Deep Purple or classic 70's rock, here are some new discs to make friends with.
