IAN GILLIAN/Toolbox (Metal Mind Productions) Now this is more like the Ian Gillian I remember. Balls to the wall rock n roll with the classic Gillian vocals to match. This is 70's style rock in roll with a bit of the Deep Purple sound to it, but it it raw and kicks ass and blows away a lot of the so called rock crap of today. His voice sounds great on this and if you crave 70's classic rock n roll here ya go, your collection is not done yet he he. Info:
