IAN GILLIAN BAND/Clear Air Turbulence (Metal Mind Productions) This is some wicked and weird jazz/rock fusion stuff from Gillian on this. Long tunes that send you on a rollercoaster of music. Lots of moods and melodies on this. I have been getting into some jazz lately and I fuckin loved this disc. It also has that mid 70's vibe to it and Gillian's vocals sound awesome on this as well. This is some of the best jazz/rock I have heard in years and I really liked this a lot. The best of his solo stuff so far. Info:
