

HEATHEN/Victims Of Deception (Metal Mind-originally released on Roadracer)

I love Bay Area thrash and Heathen were one of my favorite bands and if you listen to this you will know why. Just bone crushing thrash riffs along with the lovely vocals of David make this a thrash lovers delight. The band really could whip out the riffs bay area style and on this your neck will get a fantastic work out. 10 thrash tracks and a bonus track that was only available on the Japan release at the time. Get this and prepare to be thrashed. Info:
