

ATROPHY/Socialized Hate (Metal Mind-originally released by Roadracer)

I remember this band well as saw them play a show up at Escapades in Jersey City, NJ in front of like 13 people and I had wrote the band a few times and I hung out with them and even got a free shirt from the band! Anyway it was nice to see these 2 releases from the band back in print as they played some godly thrash metal music with social conscious lyrics. The singing is totally original as was this band and it a shame they only put out 2 albums. This is the more thrashier and faster of the 2, but they are both must haves. Buy this and see why this band at the time out a bunch of the other wanna be thrash bands to shame. You also get 2 bonus demo tracks and a bootleg video. What are you waiting for? Info:
