If you're a fan of bands like Obituary, Death, or Malevolent Creation then you'll definitely dig Disincarnate. It's old school death metal at its finest. James Murphy is an excellent guitarist and you can get a good taste of his work on this metal treat. Some of the best songs on here are "Stench Of Paradise Burning", "Soul Erosion", and "Monarch Of The Sleeping Marches". This is a remastered version of the classic complete with three bonus tracks of demos. It's a piece of blistering melodic death metal and there are even talks of a new Disincarnate album coming out if James Murphy is healthy enough to do one. Let's hope he is.
