

FLOODGATE/Penalty (Metal Mind Productions) This is the band that formed out of the ashes of Exorder. This was nu metal before nu metal. This band plays groove metal that was done way before the trend and it doesn't sound bad after all these years. You also get bonus tracks too. The vocals are awesome as there is no tough guy vocals, just some passionate singing. If you think some of that groove shit is good, pop in this and see how it is really done. Info:
