

THE COURIER-GAZETTE

Your Hometown Newspaper
The Camden Herald

Apples - Cakes - Hope - Quince - Raspberries

VISIT: WALDO COUNTY

Roy Buchanan: Live at Rockpalast (MIG DVD, 76 min.). This is a Feb. 24, 1985 show by the extraordinary guitarist (Rolling Stone lists him at number 57 of the 100 Greatest Guitarists of All Time). Buchanan, who was born in Ozark, Ark., was a pioneer of the Fender Telecaster sound. The set opens with the showy “Thing in G (Short Fuse),” which is very impressive. Covers here include Booker T. Jones’ “Green Onions,” with organ; “Hey Joe,” which Jimi Hendrix made famous; Hendrix’s own “Foxy Lady”; and Don Gibson’s “Sweet Dreams.” On “Roy’s Blues,” he sings about “going to the graveyard” to see “my baby one more time.” Grade: A

<http://knox.villagesoup.com/blog/blogpost/pearl-gems-dead-concert-films-boxed/817072>