

CHARLIE DANIELS BAND LIVE AT ROCKPALAST

Daniels is sometimes under-appreciated as a key figure in Southern-fried country-rock. This 1980 German TV performance might do quite a bit to remedy that situation. It's prime Daniels. There's a potent force in this combo of two drum kits, keyboard, bass and two guitars. And when Daniels wields that fiddle of his, all hell breaks loose. This 90-minute set climaxes with a full-throttle rendition of "Orange Blossom Special."
