

ONEREPUBLIC - THE COLLECTION (Vinyl) UMe

Assembling nearly two decades of smashes, Diamond-certified and GRAMMY® Award-nominated pop rock band OneRepublic unveils their first-ever career-spanning album entitled OneRepublic: The Collection today, via UMe. It is available digitally on all streaming platforms as well as various physical configurations, including CD, a 1LP black vinyl pressing, and a limited-edition 1LP "Fruit Punch" color vinyl. With 16 tracks, The Collection collates some of the band's biggest hits on one body of work for the very first time. Among many highlights, it features the generational hit "Counting Stars." Originally a staple from their 2013 album Native, the latter has only continued to gain popularity over the years, earning a rare Diamond certification from the RIAA. Plus, this set includes "I Ain't Worried." Originally penned for the blockbuster Top Gun: Maverick Original Motion Picture Soundtrack, the 4x-Platinum song figured prominently in the film. The Collection also houses OneRepublic's signature breakout "Apologize," certified 4x-Platinum by the RIAA, the latter a GRAMMY® nomination in the category of "Best Pop Performance by a Duo or Group with Vocal." The Collection also showcases collaborations such as "If I Lose Myself" and "I Don't Wanna Wait". Tracks rounding out the album includes: "Counting Stars," "Run," "I Lived," "Runaway," "Secrets," "Sunshine," "Love Runs Out," "Wherever I Go," "Rescue Me," "Good Life," "Stop and Stare," and "All the Right Moves." A must-have collection for all OneRepublic fans, and potential new fans as well. OneRepublic regularly averages over 53 million monthly listeners on Spotify, a testament to quality songwriting and musicianship.

THE QUIREBOYS - LIVE AT ROCKPALAST 2007 & 1990 (3 Discs 1DVD/2CD) Made in Germany Music

The Quireboys started their career in the mid-1980s at London's Marquee Club and quickly built up a steadily growing fan base in London and the surrounding area. It was only when the organizer of the prestigious Reading Festival announced in 1987 that the band would only be allowed to perform if they changed their name that The Quireboys finally became The Quireboys. In 1989, they performed at the Hammersmith Odeon before Guns N' Roses and made a name for themselves beyond London with joint performances with Hanoi Rocks and Yngwie Malmsteen. Without having released a single album, the band soon played their own headlining shows. When Sharon Osbourne took over management, The Quireboys were signed to EMI for their debut album 'A Bit of What You Fancy.' The record was a hit, especially in Japan, and the Quireboys' sleaze rock also struck a chord in the U.S. They toured there with L.A. Guns, Soundgarden, and Iggy Pop, among others, and rocked every big festival in their native England. With Spike (vocals), Guy Bailey (guitar), Guy Griffin (guitar), Nigel Mogg (bass), Rudy Richman (drums), and Chris Johnstone (keyboard), The Quireboys stormed the stage of the WDR Rockpalast in the Live Music Hall in Cologne for the first time on April 4, 1990. The evening's program naturally included songs from their formidable debut album. Seventeen years later, on October 18, 2007, The Quireboys accepted WDR's second invitation to perform at Rockpalast as part of the popular Crossroads Festival at the Harmonie in Bonn. Apart from Spike, Guy Griffin was the only musician from the 'A Bit of What You Fancy' line-up still on stage. Jimi Crutchley had taken over the bass from Nigel Mogg. Paul Guerin (guitar), Pip Mailing (drums), and Keith Weir (keyboard) completed the line-up. 'We are The Quireboys ... and this is rock n' roll!' Spike announced at the beginning of the concert — and by now, it was clear to everyone where the musical journey would take them. Enjoy 29 tracks on the two CDs, and a DVD with 30 songs and a 2007 interview.

HERE'S A GREAT BUMPER STICKER
"I WAS AN HONOR STUDENT. I'M NOT SURE WHAT HAPPENED TO ME."

HUD SPEAKS PLAIN ENGLISH NOW
The U.S. Dept. of Housing and Urban Development is making English the sole language for virtually all its services and affairs according to a recent memo from HUD's deputy secretary, which has just been sent out. It is in keeping with President Trump's executive order last March designating English as the official U.S. language.

However, there will still be some instances in which other languages may be permitted. All and all, though, I think it is time we started acting united and speaking with one voice. People have a right to be multilingual but America's first language must be English.

There is nothing wrong with families teaching their children about ancestry or even keeping up with a language other than English but our language here is English. My father never taught me to speak in the Sicilian dialect like he could because he thought it was unnecessary as did many of his generation trying to fit into America.

When it comes to the government, we must have one official language. We should be encouraging immigrants to know English. We should be teaching U.S. history in our schools. We should be proud to be Americans. Our country isn't sinless. Much of our history shows that but we cannot move forward as a people if we remain divided from each other.

HEY, WHILE AT THE BEACH

I love baking in the sun. I have two favorite beaches, Shay's Beach in Eastie and Wollaston Beach over in Quincy. I also have my favorite spots in both places. Over in Quincy at my spot there, is a message carved into the sidewalk that states, "Stop settling for less than you deserve." It caught my attention because of how true those words are. Most of us settle too often for less, don't we? I think it is a great piece of advice for both young and old, right? It gives me and you something to think about while catching all those rays.

TWO GREAT MUSIC STATIONS COMMERCIAL FREE

For years, I have loved listening to WJIB 720 AM, and recently discovered other great such stations. WLYN Lynn-Boston on 1360 AM. Check both out and compare. Let me know what you think about these radio stations. Do you have a favorite? Or are they both equally good? I'd be interested in your opinion and why?
