Sirrah: Acme

Sirrah lands somewhere between a Polish Dimmu Borgir and a Polish Lacuna Coil. There are plenty of Black Metal leanings here and there, some dances with goth metal, some twists and turns and sound smorgasbords that'll have you twisting the night away beneath a pentagram and a black candle candelabra. Nothing to write Warsaw about, nothing to launch a World War over, but decent, sure. Best of the stuff here includes "Passover 1944," "On The Verge" and "Iridium."
