VADER – SOTHIS CD

Review by Mark Jason Murray

1998
Metal Mind
7 tracks
Playing time: 23 min. 45 sec.

Polish death metal group Vader has continued to remain a mainstay in the genre, continuously releasing quality music. As far as I can tell they were also the first Polish metal group to be signed to a US label and after 20 years the band is still going strong. This reissue of one of their first EPs from 1994 shows the band during their formative years. The disc starts out with the then popular practice of an intro praising the 'ancient ones' and blasts into some Morbid Angel inspired metal, which is a pretty prevalent influence for this release. They round out the release with a heavy rendition of 'Black Sabbath'. Even at the early stages of their career, Vader was releasing quality death metal and it's no wonder they are continuing today.
