

DIES IRAE - Sculptured of Stone · Metal Mind / MVD

Finally this 2004 under-the-radar gem is back in circulation. For those unfamiliar with this band's brief stint on Metal Blade Records, this is actually a VADER side project, and they essentially sound like VADER with a different vocalist. No complaints here. If you like VADER but don't like this, I have to question your very existence. Hardest hitters: "Unrevealed by Words" and "The Plague." - 9.25 - <Jack>
