

YATTERING - Live Extermination · Metal Mind / MVD

I'll be completely honest, this live album is my first time hearing YATTERING. Until now my only knowledge of them was that they hail from Poland and have an awesome logo. Well, god damn! These guys are fucking insane. A little too weird for me. Their shit is so spastic and technical it makes Calculating Infinity sound like Never Mind the Bullocks and Obscura sound like the RAMONES. Holy shit! Who in this crowd that April 2000 evening in Krakow could even tell if they fucked up? I hear 237 riffs in the first 8 minutes alone. Damn good vocalist, though. I wonder if he'd consider growling for a human band. - 7 - <Jack>
