

ARCHEON/End Of The Weakness (Metal Mind Productions) This is death metal with a singer that sounds like Mille from Kreator. The band aren't just death metal as they mix in some power metal parts and some keyboard parts here and there. This really got better with repeated listens as the songs sucked me as they were just so damn catchy and I love the guitar sound the band uses on this as well. Production is excellent and overall just a fantastic release. Info: www.metalmind.com.pl
