

DEIVOS/Emanation From Below (Metal Mind Productions) This is more groove metal and I just didn't like it much as the band didn't do much for me. That being said the vocals aren't all that lower than low shit and the blast beats didn't have that tin can sound that is absolutely pointless. The band have a thick sound to them, but the songs just didn't click for me, but maybe they will for you. Info: www.metalmind.com.pl
