WOLF SPIDER/Drifting In The Sullen Sea (Metal Mind Productions) I had never ever heard of this band back in the day and when I popped this in my ears perked up as this was some prime time old school thrash metal. How in the hell did

I miss this band in the early 90's? This is some serious old school thrash played with speed, power, aggression and violence. Tons of double bass drum parts along with bursts of speed that will have any fan of metal on his knees bowing. 11 tracks of bone crushing thrash metal with 4 bonus tracks. Buy or die you
