Gorgoth is one of the essential new school death metal bands from outside the USA that mixed elements of Venom with Burzum, etc., they are a huge band in the overseas Death Metal scene, & interestingly enough, the main concert footage is much talked about because it's footage that features the band onstage with a stellar stage show & they are surrounded by real, dead, severed animal heads, BUT, if I'm being totally honest here, they are NOT the first band to do this...it's got a "Lord of the Flies" vibe to it & I saw American Head Charge do the same thing many years ago on the Pledge of Allegiance tour here in the USA..it's quite grotesque & sickening, but also artistic in it's own weirdness, because the severed animal heads are meant to be intense, yet, I don't see it that way...it's almost Spinal Tap-ish when you look at it & what I really like the most about seeing Gorgoth in the concert footage on this dvd is their intensity for performance..they put alot into their playing & their stage presence is undeniably interesting & good! This is actually a must-see dvd for the death metal freaks, it's got killer audio, great video & loads' o' bonus material as well!
