Behind The Iron Curtain

Metal Mind Records

Another performance from this year's Prog Rock Festival at Katowice, Poland, which this time features Polish band SBB. The show demonstrates the virtuosity of the musicians in the band who combine jazz and blues into some intricate pieces of progressive rock music. Anthimos Apostolis has a great guitar sound and plays some sublime solos during the set, while multi instrumentalist and occasional vocalist Jozef Sczek leads the proceedings. Like the other DVDs from this festival, the sound and picture quality is fantastic.
