

PLANT, JONES, STONE SHINE ON ROCKWELL BENEFIT CONCERT DVD

On September 11, 2009, Led Zeppelin singer Robert Plant, the legendary Tom Jones and British soul singer Joss Stone were among many artists who performed at the O2 Arena in London at the Rockwell concert to support the Nordoff-Robbins charity which supports the use of music therapy. The special event was filmed and will be available on DVD on June 19. Musical highlights include Plant doing "Black Dog" and "Whole Lotta Love" and Jones performing "It's Not Unusual" as well as a finale featuring Plant, Jones and Stone plus the entire lineup doing The Beatles' "Let it Be."

Jim Villanueva

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Dial_Global