

MTI Continued

On Sept. 26, f/x and makeup whiz-turned-director Ryan Nicholson's graphic action/horror flick (think: Asia exteme blended seamlessly with Saw and you'll be in the right slaughterhouse), Live Feed, streets as a two-SKU offer — an unrated version (extended by five minutes) and the original R-rated version.

Nicholson provides commentary on the unrated version, plus there's a "behind-the-blood" featurette titled "The Making of Live Feed."

Also getting a Sept. 26 date is the second, uncut season of Bliss, the Oxygen Network series that explores the fantasies of women. Written, directed and produced by women, this second season features eight very sexy episodes from such filmmakers as Holly Dale, Adrienne Mitchell, Sylvie Rosenthal, Lynne Stopkewich, Jane Thompson, Ghyslaine Côté and Marni Banack.

Music Video Distributors

On Nov. 7 Music Video Distributors will give us the most complete look possible on The Pixies, in loudQUIETloud. The band was a huge success in the late 1980s and early 1990s, but fans were in shock when the band abruptly split in 1992. The band reunited in 2004, to the delight of all their fans.

The DVD takes a close look at the band, both onstage and off, emphasizing the personal issues of each band member, from Frank Black to Joey Santiago. More than a dozen tracks of the Pixies' music is featured on the DVD.

"Independent retailers are going to have a field day with this DVD," said MVD CEO Tom Seaman. "The reaction we've gotten has been very favorable."

While loudQUIETloud is the headline act in MVD's fourth quarter listings, it's not the only one worth noting. Rock Fresh, a documentary about graffiti artists, streets Aug. 29. Other Aug. 29 new-to-DVD releases from the MVD include Dwarves: Fefu (which features the Suicide Girls), Ian Gillan Band: Live at the Rainbow, 1977 and Roger Chapman: Family and Friends.

Shifting to Sept. 19, we'll revisit the Bad Brains' CBGB performance on Christmas Eve in 1982, plus the sultry Sue Foley has a DVD date with Sue Foley: Live in Europe, the Polish rockers De Mono are showcased with De Mono: Nie Wszystko Na Sprzeda? (say that three times fast) and MVD also has music DVD releases for LZY: 1996-2006, Bob Brozman: Live in Germany and Blues Caravan: New Generation.
