

MIDWEST RECORD RECAP

MUSIC VIDEO DISTRBUTORS

LEO KOTTKE/Home and Away Revisited: An expanded version of a docu about Kottke is a grand diversion of fans of the guitar master that either never saw it or want to see more about the man. Mixing performance and life situations into the kind of stew that currently gaining vogues with docus on subjects like Jack Elliot and Townes Van Zandt, long time fans are sure to enjoy this look at the man and his playing; newbies that have just discovered him from his association with Phish will probably be amazed how he's been at it for so long seeming to never miss a step. Long time fans will get a blast out scenes of Kottke hanging with John Hartford, Doc Watson and Michael Hedges in addition to the concert footage featuring some of his best loved works.

<http://reviews.midwestrecord.com/>