What's In The Racks This Week?

Fun with Jim Carrey, J.Lo goes West, and Judas Priest bring motorcycles to Memphis.

By C. Bottomley

First-Run

● Fun With Dick and Jane

This yuppies-turned-bandits comedy doesn't know if it wants to be an anti-Enron satire or a true Jin movie, but the laughs come quickly and most jokes are on their mark. Deleted scenes and a gag re how much of the comedy came from Carrey and Tea Leoni's clowning.

● Wolf Creek

When a trio of tourists head out to visit a meteor crater in remote Australia, you just know something horrible is going to happen -- and when it does, you'll understand why some ticket-buyers could barely sit through this experiment in terror. When the squirming's over, there is a giggly director's commentary and deleted scenes.

● An Unfinished Life

Robert Redford is a crusty old rancher. Jennifer Lopez is the daughter-in-law he blames for his son's death. Eventually they're going to get together and hash things out, and Morgan Freeman is on hand to nod approvingly. Nice Montana scenery, too. Extras include bear training scenes, but no Kleenex.

Watch a Clip!

● The Greatest Game Ever Played

Few golf movies beat Caddyshack, but director Bill Pullman treats this true story of David vs. Goliath on the links like an action thriller -- complete with breathless long drives and split-second putting. The Big Love star adds commentary, and there's a documentary on the amateur golfer played by Shia LaBeouf.

Re-Release

- Mission: Impossible Special Collector's Edition
 Despite onset tension between Tom Cruise and Scarface director Brian De Palma, the first installment of the espionage franchise is also the best -- and Cruise's burglary of the Pentagon rewrites the suspense textbook. Extras include a slew of featurettes on the production and - for a limited time - a ticket to M:I III.
- Cartoon Classic Favorites - Best Pals
Disney continues to release their short cartoons from the 1940s and 1950s in themed sets, but be warned -- "Best Pals" means some of them focus exclusively on Pluto and forgotten cat Figaro. The demented Duck easily overshadows milquetoast Mickey, particularly in Vol. 11's "Donald's Dream Voice."

TV

- The Bob Newhart Show: The Third Season
 Before Frazier took Freud to the Seattle airwaves, Bob Newhart took on the Me Decade of the 1970s as a buttoned-down psychiatrist. He was still going strong in the third season -- coping with friends and family nuttier than his patients. Guests include John Ritter and Best in Show's Fred Willard.

Music

- Judas Priest -- Live Vengeance
 It's 1982, and the metal masters roll into Memphis with leathers, lasers and licks from the Screaming for Vengeance album. Rob Halford drives out onstage in a motorcycle to sing "Hellbent for Leather" and heads, not surprisingly, bang. No extras.
- Leo Kottke Home & Away \(Revisited\)
 The virtuoso acoustic guitarist's picking prowess can make jaws drop; give the guy a 12-string and he can make it sound like a brass band parading down the street. This 1988 Toronto show catches him in on a typically impressive evening, blending elaborate instrumentals with poignant tunes such as "Rings." Extras include a backstage session with guitarist Michael Hedges and an inpromptu exchange with master fretsman Doc Watson and Chet Atkins.
- Various artists - Reggae Showdown: Giants of Sting
 Since its 1984 debut, the all-star Sting show has become one of Jamaica's premier dancehall events. Highlights of this 2002 concert include Elephant Man unsuccessfully seducing an audience member, Bounty Killer drilling the crowd, and Beenie Man inexplicably dressed as The Love Boat's Capt. Stubing.
- Various artists -- Reggae Showdown: Shabba at Showdown
 It's arguable whether Shabba Ranks paved the way for Sean Paul to become Lord of the Dancehall, but "Mr. Lover Man" served up slackness by the pound. Resplendent in purple pajamas, he headlines a 1990 bill that includes Ninja Man and Professor Nuts.
- Various artists -- Reggae Showdown: Dennis Brown Live at Reggae Canfest
 A star since he was 11, Dennis Brown performed honeyed ballads, lovers rock, and roots material. No less than Bob Marley anointed him the best reggae singer in the world. His final concert in 1999 is a sweaty and smoky affair, with Bro outclassing support acts Lady Saw and Frankie Paul.
