AMAZING GRACE:
COUNTRY STARS SING
SONGS OF FAITH AND HOPE
(DVD) / Time Life

There's always been a strong connection between country and gospel music and never has that bond been more celebrated than on Amazing Grace: Country Stars Sing Songs of Faith and Hope. For many of country music's top artists, most of whom were raised in the rural South; the church was an integral part of life, where they learned to use the power of their voice to touch people with a song. Loretta Lynn released her solo album, Hymns in 1965, which became the first of many gospel projects recorded by the country music icon. Johnny Cash's faith was dominant in his music, and the Man in Black recorded several well-received gospel albums. In 2006, Alan Jackson gave fans Precious Memories, an award-winning collection that became one of the best-selling albums of his distinguished career. Alabama have recorded their favorite gospel songs on albums that have become landmark moments in their careers. Faith has also been woven throughout the music of superstars such as Reba McEntire, Martina McBride and Vince Gill, whose classic "Go Rest High on That Mountain" remains one of the Country Music Hall of Famer's most beloved hits. 153 live performances by the greatest country artists performing songs of faith and hope. Performances from Alabama, Gill, Jackson, George Jones, Lynn, McEntire, The Oak Ridge Boys, Dolly Parton, The Statler Brothers, Randy Travis, Josh Turner and dozens more, reviving timeless hymns as "Amazing Grace," "How Great Thou Art," and "In the Garden."

SOLO
(DVD) / Studio Mao
Solo is a documentary that reveals six unique stories of individuals who use the art of dancing as their own tool in fighting back difficulties, dealing with pain, incomprehension and the obstacles standing in their way to happiness through creative self-expression. The performers belong to completely different styles — classical ballet, contemporary dance, krump, vogue, experimental hip-hop, and pole dance — represent the new generation of Russian artists, free from preconceptions, clichés and ready to be part of the dance revolution. The documentary format lenses real people in intimate setting: a behind-the-scenes routine of professional dancers, considered improper for traditional dance documentaries.

GREAT CONCERT AT LYNN AUDITORIUM

On Saturday night, October 22nd, the Lynn Auditorium would have been packed to the rafters had the place had rafters. Everyone was there for a great night of good old '60s and '70s music by the Stylistics and Taveras. Many of my friends were over there and said they had a blast. Had I not been preoccupied elsewhere that night, you would have seen me stepping onto the dance floor strutting my dance moves.

HEALEY DECLINES

THIRD DEBATE CHALLENGE
Soon after the second Healey-Diehl Debate was history, Republican challenger Geoff Diehl challenged her to a third debate. She declined the offer. Why would Diehl want to do another debate considering how weakly he debated Healey in the first two debates. According to a Healey spokesperson Karissa Hand, "Maura looks forward to taking her case directly to voters for the final two weeks of the campaign."

A Suffolk University poll released recently shows Healey holding a 23-point lead over Diehl among likely voters."

HAVING A BAD COFFEE DAY?

When I am having a bad coffee day, it's like I can't find a good cup of java anywhere. The last thing coffee drinkers want is a cup of bad coffee. Usually, I immediately think of an old pop song by Mike Peditin from 1961 entitled "Burnt Toast and Black Coffee." Can I tell you, I was already drinking my parent's "Kybo Coffee" they would buy at the First National Store back then at 13 years old!

ANOTHER GREAT SLOW SONG

There is nothing better than dancing to a great slow song with your special squeeze. I just heard a great one from back in the day by Bloodstone entitled "Natural High." If you know, you know what I mean, if you don't have any idea what I'm talking about, Google it and listen to both the lyrics and melody. I still think "I Wanna Know Your Name" by the Intruders is still my best slow moving song on the dance floor.

"Gimme Some Lovin'" by the Spencer Davis Group back in 1967 was the best Rock & Roll song ever written. I was 19 years old back then, and I knew what I was talking about.
