MVD Links With Tony Palmer

June 29, 2007 - Indies | Retail

By Todd Martens, L.A.

Independent DVD distributor MVD Visual has partnered with director Tony Palmer and will begin releasing his music-centered documentaries on DVD this fall. On Sept. 18 MVD will release "All My Loving," which looks at the intersection of music and pop-culture in the late '60s, compiling footage from the Beatles, Cream, Jimi Hendrix, the Who and Pink Floyd.

Following the release of "All My Loving," MVD will issue a box set of Palmer's 17 part series on the early history of pop music, "All You Need is Love," with Bing Crosby, Frank Sinatra, the Rolling Stones, Bob Dylan and Muddy Waters, among others. A release date has not yet been set for the box.

Take Our Poll

Billboard.biz Poll

Should record labels abandon digital rights management (DRM)?

- Yes - It doesn't work and dropping DRM would boost sales.

ADVERTISMENT

No - It would further enable piracy and music deserves the same protection as other forms of digital entertainment.
