Banshee!!!

Synthetic Cinema/MVD Entertainment, 86 minutes, not rated, $14.95

Group of teens on a Spring Break camping trip met up with an Irish mythological critter that makes them hallucinate through sound waves. No, I didn't make that part up; it's in the description. A reviewer on Amazon notes that any film that uses more than one exclamation point in its title probably sucks, and he says this one does. You have been warned. Extras: deleted scenes, bloopers and outtakes, commentary.
