Horror+Porno="Horno" coming from SRS Cinema

Published on September 13, 2010 by Greg B. · 1 Comment

Coming October 19, 2010 from SRS Cinema and MVD Visual...

Ron is a porn director with a little more vision than talent, not that he has much of either. He aspires to greatness, but never quite achieves it – that is until he comes up with the idea he’s sure will launch him to infamy: “Children of the Cornhole”, a horror/porno hybrid! Yes, it’s a “horno” film, one whose plot is brilliant in its pornographic simplicity: a zombie outbreak is being spread by legions of the undead bent on sodomizing anybody they can. Once Ron convinces his producer that it’s a profitable idea, he’s on his way to Hollywood, or at least he thinks so. He gathers together his rag-tag troupe of cast and crew in a hotel room and starts filming. But things soon go horribly wrong when life begins to imitate “art” in the worst possible way.

Director: Terrance Williams

Cast: Carlos Javier Castillo, Frank Merchant, Jesselynn Desmond, Ingrid Nicole Kennedy
