Here's a punk band with real distinct personality. Sure, punk sound staples are here, but this is no mimicry, no genre homage. This is the real deal, mean and horny, baby. Ready to rock and fuckin' roll. The band rolls out of the speakers with incredible presence and a perfect balance of pure raw and pure talent. The front man aggro asserts his lyrics while the guitars get on a heady groove and the rhythm section lay it down right. And the versatility on display here is also noteworthy. Lots of great punk bands out there who have a great sound, but they're one trick ponies, no matter how great that fucking pony is. Not so with The Killer Smiles. These dudes can go fast, slow, this style, that, while always being Killer Smiles. This is great punk, which should be a refreshing message in this day and age.
