“East Bay Ray and the Killer Smiles”

East Bay Ray and the Killer Smiles

review by Kyle-O

The latest project from Dead Kennedys guitarist East Bay Ray, East Bay Ray and the Killer Smiles self titled release is sure to appeal to the Punk Rock in all of us. Full of guitars, melodic/catchy choruses, and a healthy mix of power-punk and surf guitars, this album delivers to expectations. Songs such as “The Heart is Something”, “Area 51”, and an even cover of Merle Travis’s (or more famously Johnny Cash’s) “16 Tons” display all of these qualities with an attitude only a punk band can deliver. I recommend a listen to anyone looking to hear some old school Punk from a new band.
