

THE PLAIN DEALER

Sunday, Jan. 29, 2012

"David & Kamal"

This tale of two 9-year-old boys takes place in Jerusalem. David has come from America to visit his divorced father but has trouble connecting with him. Kamal sells postcards to tourists to help his poor family but is mistreated by his oppressive grandfather and hassled by bullies. The 2011 drama won three film festival awards. Unrated, 78 minutes. No extras. From MVD Visual. Released Jan. 24.

- Chris Ball