

Skillet & Leroy Featuring LaWanda Page - 2 or 3 Times A Day (CD, Cult Collectibles / MVD Audio, Comedy)

We're longtime devoted fans of LaWanda Page (easily one of the funniest comedians of all time...)...so this album immediately caught our attention.

While all three may have been co-stars on the well-known comedy series Sanford and Son, on this album Skillet, Leroy, and LaWanda take center stage as they present their "Soul Clowns" standup routine. Originally released in 1969 on the Laff Records label, 2 or 3 Times A Day is a great slice of old school black humor...complete with plenty of craziness, hostility, and general filthiness. Forget political correctness...this stuff was written and recorded before that trite hypocritical term was ever coined. Listening to this, it makes you wish you could go back in time and witness this in person. The audience howls when these folks deliver the punch lines. Funny, funny stuff that's completely timeless. Skits include "Short Dress," "Monkey and the Yo-Yo," "Soapy Panty," and "Texas Sheep." Gotta love this one... Top pick.

<http://www.babysue.com/2012-May-LMNOP-Reviews.html#anchor591833>