

ROSE TATTOO/Live in 1993 From Boggo Road Jail (MVD Visual) This band I remember back in the day as a almost AC/DC sort of clone band with a bald headed singer and also on album stood out to me was called "Scarred For Life". This is from a show many moons ago and while this didn't blow me away, the band sound good and heck since AC/DC is my favorite band, this bands brand of rock n roll was decent to my ears. Really good live quality sound and visual as well. Also the original line-up got back together to do this, which is cool as well. Info:
