

ROSE TATTOO

Live in 1993 from Boggo Road Jail

Track Listing:

You don't see rock n roll bands like Rose Tattoo any more and it's a damn shame that the band never truly cracked the US market because when you watch this dvd you realize how much bands like Guns N Roses & Buckcherry truly borrowed from Rose Tattoo!

I'll fess up and admit that if it wasn't for Guns N Roses covering "Nice Boys" by Rose Tattoo off the bands "Lies" EP I wouldn't know who Rose Tattoo was/is and that's a crime if you love real, dirty, raw rock n roll music!

Anderson has the vocals of an early Bonn Scott from AC/DC but sadly he has the body of Dave Draiman from Disturbed and the rest of the band are an odd looking bunch when you see them offstage, Pete with his mullet, etc., but when the band takes the stage they own the shit out of everything they do and I will also point out that the slide guitar work Pete lays down is sweet to the ears!

"Street Fighting Man" by the Rolling Stones was covered at this show & "Going Down" is the sets closer featuring Billy Thorpe on guitar!

Anderson proclaims that something was as useless as a dick on a cow at one point in the show & the overall beauty of this band is that it's 5 men getting onstage to play REAL rock n roll...there's no glam, no glitz, nothing pretty, it's just the real deal blood, sweat & beers when Rose Tattoo take the stage & this dvd sums up the bands essence 100%!
