

assassin (Dolph Lundgren) hired to kill him. Long time since you won Best Supporting Actor, eh Cuba? Extras: commentary.

Perry Mason: The Seventh Season, Vol. 1

Paramount, 759 minutes, not rated, 15 episodes, 4 discs, $49.99

Perry Mason is an attorney who specializes in defending seemingly indefensible cases. With the aid of his secretary Della Street and investigator Paul Drake, he often finds that by digging deeply into the facts, startling facts can be revealed. Often relying on his outstanding courtroom skills, he often tricks or traps people into unwittingly admitting their guilt.

Planet Dinosaur

BBC/Warner Bros., 180 minutes, not rated, $19.96

BBC documentary series about dinosaurs, introducing new species discovered within the past 20 years. Narrated by John Hurt. Extras: making-of-featurette.

Play In The Gray

Seminal Films, 85 minutes, not rated, $14.95

Documentary about a Boston-based drag and cabaret inspired theater troupe, "All the Kings Men." The members of the troupe struggle with their identity, families, day jobs, relationships and identity. No extras listed.

Pocahontas and Pocahontas II: Journey To A New World

Disney, 154 minutes, G, 3 discs, BD/DVD: $39.99

Pocahontas (voice of Irene Bedard) meets the dashing Captain John Smith (Mel Gibson) when English settlers arrive on the shores of her village. But there's trouble as well, as a greedy overlord (David Ogden Stiers) has capitalistic designs on the Indians' land. The direct-to-video sequel has Pocahontas traveling to England. Winner of Best Original Score and Best Song – "Colors of the Wind." Disney's sanitized version of the Pocahontas legend has received criticism over the years from both sides of the political spectrum, but in all fairness, "The Jungle Book" doesn't follow the original script, either. Extras: featurette; interactive guide. BD adds: animated short; BD-Live capacity; commentary; deleted scenes.

The Rescuers and The Rescuers Down Under

Disney, 156 minutes, G, 3 discs

DVD: $29.99

BD/DVD: $39.99

Bernard (voice of Bob Newhart) and Bianca (Eva Gabor) of the Rescue Aid Society seek out a little girl named Penny in the original "The Rescuers" (1977). In the 1990 sequel, "The Rescuers Down Under," Bernard and Bianca travel to Australia to rescue a young boy caught by a poacher (George C. Scott). Extras: animated short; featurettes.

Revenge: The Complete First Season

ABC Studios, 946 minutes, not rated, 22 episodes, 5 discs, $45.99

Emily Thorne's (Emily VanCamp) life and family were destroyed by the Hampton's wealthiest elite when she was a young girl. Now she's grown up and has a plan for revenge. Als stars Madeline Stowe, Henry Czerny, Josh Bowman, Nich Wechsler, Gabriel Mann, Connor Paolo, Ashley Madekwe and Christa B. Allen. Extras: bloopers; cast interviews; deleted scenes; episode commentary; featurettes; music video.

A Separation

Sony, 123 minutes, PG-13,

DVD: $30.99

BD: $35.99

Simin (Leila Hatami) is separating from her husband Nader (Peyman Moaadi) because she wants to take their daughter Termeh (Sarina Farhadi) out of Tehran and go abroad to give her a better life. Nader wants to stay in Iran to take care of his aging father who has Alzheimer's. Simin's request for divorce is denied and she returns to her parent's home. Termeh decides to stay with her father, who hires a new maid, Razieh (Sareh Bayat). When Nader discovers that Razieh has been lying to him, life starts to get even more complicated. Oscar winner for Best Foreign