Drag on Display ...

PLANTED SEEDS and MVD present a documentary you may have to drag your more uptight friends to see. Fortunately, since it's on DVD, you won't have to drag them far. PLAY IN THE GRAY will be a rejoicing in a lifestyle for some, a subcultural revelation for others and, for a lot of folks, I imagine, a great big WTF?! But that's okay. People need the sticks up their asses rattled, and dragaret is as good a rattler as any – for some people anyway. For that matter, we could just look at this as a celebration of the art itself, which is the most positive approach. Actually PLAY IN THE GRAY is not a broad documentary about cross-dressing lifestyle. Rather, as one would expect with a music-based distro group like MVD, this has a musical component. See that silly yet clever little word up there? "DRAGARET"? Well, you could – if you wanted – call what these people do ... dragaret. The wittily monickered theater troupe ALL THE KING'S MEN is a batch of thespians who mix drag and cabaret in their own curious way. And now that there's a doc out 'bout them, the curious can find out more. And the open-minded can become curious. And find out more. Either way, here it is!
